Madrid, Jan. 6. The King has given Orders to the Cardinals Belluga and Borgia, to prepare to go to the Court of Rome; which Orders are thought to be occaſioned by the Advices received from thence of the Pope's ill State of Health. The King and Queen ſet out from hence To-Morrow, to paſs a few Days at the Pardo. There are no Advices come from Ceuta, ſince the Account brought by Expreſs of the third Action with the Moors on the 21ſt paſt.

Paris, Jan. 22. The honorary Directors of the India Company had a Meeting on the 20th Inſtant at the Duke of Bourbon's, at which aſſiſted ſeveral of the chief Proprietors of the Actions of the India Company. A Propoſition is made to the General Farmers, and the General Receivers of the King's Revenues, to advance (beſides the Sums they have already agreed to furniſh at their entring on their Employments) ſix Millions more every Month, which they are to reimburſe themſelves in the Courſe of their Adminiſtration, and the Comptroller General uſes his beſt Endeavours to induce them to comply with this Demand. The Dutcheſs Dowager of Orleans is indiſpoſed, and the Duke Regent has been ſeveral Days ill of a violent Cold. Conſiderable Sums of Money have been remitted to Rennes for the Relief of the Inhabitants who ſuffered by the late Fire, and the Count of Toulouſe ſent thither ſome Days ago 20 Thouſand Livres in Specie. A Lettre de Cachet was ſent laſt Week to M. Colin, Rector of the Sorbonne, for the reſtoring of the 22 Doctors, who were turned out ſome time ago. This Matter will be debated in the firſt Aſſembly of that Faculty, which will be held the 1ſt of next Month. Don Felix Cornecho, formerly Secretary to the Spaniſh Embaſſy at this Court under the Duke of Alva, arrived here two Days ago, and is to proceed after a ſhort Stay to Rome, in order to reſide there in Quality of the Catholick King's Envoy Extraordinary. Four Ships richly laden arrived the Beginning of this Month at St. Malo, but as they came from the Levant and other ſuſpected Places, the Governour would not ſuffer them to enter, but ſent out four armed Veſſels to be a Guard upon them, at a good Diſtance from the Port, till he ſhould receive Orders from Court about them. Whereupon a Courrier having been diſpatched hither in order to lay before the Duke Regent the Danger which might reſult from the unlading of thoſe Ships, his Royal Highneſs cauſed the Council of Commerce to aſſemble, wherein it was reſolved to make the Men keep Quarantain, and to ſink the Ships together with all their Lading.

On Wedneſday the 8th of February next will be expoſed to Sale by the Candle, in the Long Room in the Cuſtom-Houſe, London, Sugar, &c. from Barbadoes, and the Leeward Iſlands.
